

University of Guelph Library
Archival and Special Collections

Scott, George (essays) XS1 MS A211

A hard cover bound book containing and written essays by George Scott dating from 1802-1817 with an addition in 1835. Two volumes in one.

Volume I

1. A Short Account of Some Opinions on Two Important Subjects Read in the West Port Chapel of Dundee Scotland for which the writer was excluded from the Society.
2. Letters and Document Relating to the Conduct of the Rev. Thos. Yates.
3. A Narrative of the Proceedings of the Rev. James Thompson and the Kirk Session of Dundee to one of the Members of the Church.
4. Question. Whether is the Pulpit or the Bar the Better Field For Eloquence?
5. Question. Whether are Savings Banks or Friendly Societies the Most Beneficial to the Poor?
6. Thoughts on Imagination.
7. Question. Whether Does the Hope of Good or the Possession of it Yield the Greatest Pleasure?
8. Question. Whether Has Hope or Fear the Greater Influence on Mankind.
9. Question. Whether Belief in Apparitions Can be Justified?
10. Question. Whether is Agriculture or Commerce More Beneficial to a Country?
11. Question. Is it Proper to Punish Criminals With Death?
12. Question. Whether are More Virtuous Actions Performed From the Hope of Reward or From the Fear of Punishment?
13. Inquisitor & No Inquisitor.
14. Journal of a Voyage From Scotland to Halifax, June 1817.
15. Observations on the Lancastrian School Halifax.
16. Family Registry.

Volume II

1. Proposal for a Juvenile Library.
2. Preface to the Dundee Operative Lodge Articles.
3. A Few Thoughts on the General Mode of Paying Tradesmen's Accounts.
4. A New Species of Advertisement.
5. Orphan Institution.
6. Letter to the Nine Incorporated Trades of Dundee.
7. Literary Question.
8. Resolutions Respecting the Corn Bill.

University of Guelph Library
Archival and Special Collections

9. Observations in the Loss of Spalding's Boat, Dundee Ferry.
10. Orphan Institution.
11. Observations on the Rev. Dr. Chalmers for the Benefit of Orphan Institution.
12. Lunatic Asylum.
13. On Patriotism.
14. Hypocrisy and Open Villany.
15. Letter Respecting the Conduct of the Nine Trades of Dundee.
16. Reply to a Tradesman.
17. Some Thoughts on a Reform.
18. Question. Whether is prosperity or adversity most conducive to virtue?
19. Thoughts on the Constitution of Great Britain.
20. Question. Whether are Meteoric Stones Generated in Our Atmosphere or Thrown by Volcanic Force from the Moon or other Planets?