McKinnon Correspondence XS1 MS A231

Correspondence from various members of the McKinnon family.

Robert L. McKinnon (Guelph judge for 18 yrs circa 1920) tried to recover part of the Russian estate of relative Catherine McKinnon of Scotland (1778-1858) a nursery Governess in households of Czars Alexander I and Nicholas I. This accounts for half of the collection.

The other half is family correspondence during WWII. Finding aid lists documents in chronological, numbering 105 in total. Compiled in February 1992 by Dr. John W. Sheets of Central Missouri State University.
